and requires a considerable amount of research and analysis. Mrs. [REDACTED] claims that this is a difficult and tedious position, and overall is more like that of a field reports officer than that of a headquarters reports officer.

The Chief, Near East and South Asia Division stated that he does not believe that this service equates in all respects to actual overseas service. The CSCS Board and the Deputy Director for Plans concluded that the responsibilities of this position fall somewhat short of the criteria for qualifying service.

Board Recommendation:

STATINTL

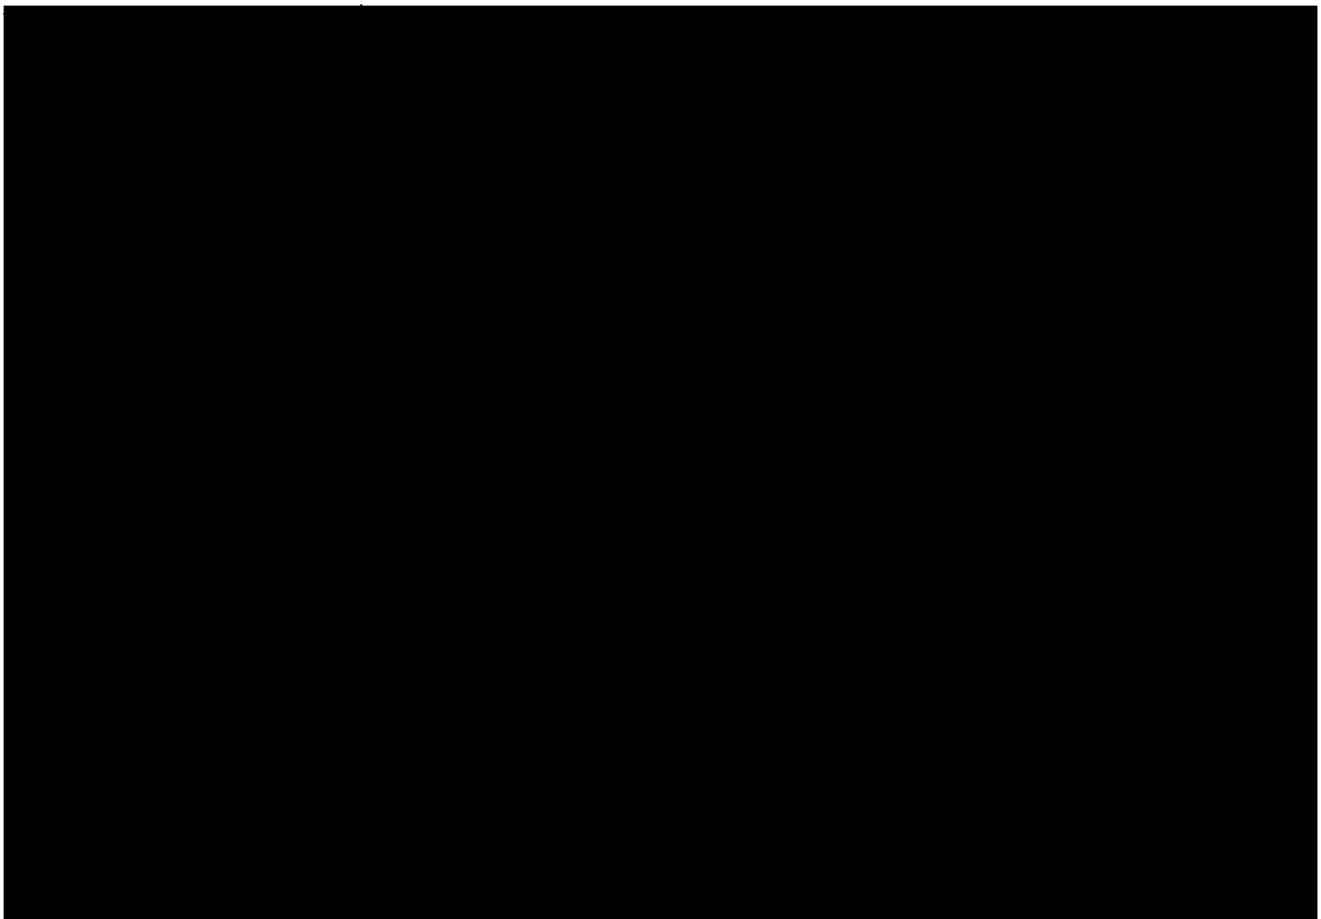

The Board concluded that the service performed by Mrs. [REDACTED] during this period was not qualifying under any of the provisions [REDACTED]. The Board, therefore, recommended that Mrs. [REDACTED] NOT be approved for participation in CIARDS based partially on domestic qualifying service.

Board Recommendation:

25X1A

In discussing this case the Board noted that, although [REDACTED] was not required routinely to instruct trainees, he was responsible for the training of all newly assigned instructors and had the overall responsibility to handle any corrective action required by misfires. The Board also noted that he participated directly in the TSD testing program. The Board concluded that [REDACTED] had performed sufficient periods of domestic service, which were qualifying under the provisions [REDACTED] which when added to this overseas service would total more than the required 60 months of qualifying service. The Board, therefore, recommended that [REDACTED] be approved for participation in CIARDS based partially on domestic qualifying service.

5. The meeting adjourned at 2:35 p. m.
